To the extent not inconsistent with this Agreement, the Parties are still governed by the Applications. Except on issues addressed specifically in the Applications, this Agreement is intended as a final expression of the agreement between Customer and Speedling and is a complete and exclusive statement of the terms of their agreement; provided, however, that if the Customer is a Speedling distributor, certain provisions of the distributorship agreement may apply. No oral statements, no course of prior dealing between Customer and Speedling and no usage of trade will be relevant to supplement or explain any term in this Agreement. An order for Goods may be modified or rescinded only in writing, signed by Speedling and Customer through their duly authorized representatives.

8. APPLICABLE LAW AND ATTORNEY'S FEES – This Agreement, the Goods and any orders will be governed by laws of the State of Florida. LITIGATION/ARBITRATION OF DISPUTES - In the event any dispute arises concerning any aspect of the Agreement and the Goods, the non-breaching Party may have the dispute resolved either in litigation or arbitration. Arbitration and litigation will be subject to sections 8 and 11 herein. If arbitration is selected, the non-breaching party will make a written demand for arbitration. Within fifteen days (15) from receipt of the written demand, each Party will appoint one (1) arbitrator. The two appointed arbitrators will then select a third arbitrator. If either Party fails to timely designate or appoint an arbitrator or if the two appointed arbitrators cannot agree on a third arbitrator within thirty (30) days, either Party may request that selection of the third arbitrator be made by a Circuit Court Judge in the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit in and for Hillsborough County. The Arbitration hearing will take place in Hillsborough County, Florida, and the Revised Florida Arbitration Code (Chapter 682), Florida Rules of Civil Procedure and the Florida Evidence Code will apply. An arbitration award or decision approved by at least two arbitrators will bind and either Party may enforce said arbitration award or decision in the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit, in and for Hillsborough County, Florida. The Parties agree that any arbitration action may not be extended to include any individual or entity beyond the Parties.
